A very chic friend once told me that your clothes don't have to be expensive as long as your accessories are incredible.
LA CC Sunglasses $455 therow.com

I try to buy a piece of art wherever I travel. Styled in a low-to-the-ground vignette, this locally made work takes me right back to the beach. #27a Monkey Pod Wood Sculpture by Aleph Geddis $500 store.theslow.id

My fantasy holiday villa involves a lacquered living room, rattan details, and statement seating.

Leora Chair by Charlap Hyman & Herrero thefutureperfect.com

Wrap it around your waist, spread it across the sand—an essential with multiple uses and maximal style.

Vice Versa Fringed Throw by Maison de Vacances $250 clic.com

Instantly turn your space into an ultra-zen zone with earthy incense that cleanses everywhere you go.

Ground Ritual Smokeless Incense by Nippon Kodo $32 bodha.com

Bali, Indonesia

Tropic Wonder

This summer I'm channeling Bali in its latest iteration, a hub for cool new art and design amid an oasis of calm.

What better way to bring Bali home than with breezy paint colors. Try these as glossy ceiling accents.

Bali 702 and Seaweed 2035-10 benjaminmoore.com

As one who collects sun hats, this wide-brimmed addition is another fun excuse to throw some shade.
Oceanic Hat $285 clyde.world

When it comes to toiletries, I tend to pack light: a scent with notes of oakmoss and black pepper, a daytime lipstick...and done.

Fantôme de Maules Perfume $130 storaskuggan.com
