

ELLE DECOR

A-LIST 2024

IT'S HERE: OUR ANNUAL LOOK AT THE MOST IMPRESSIVE DESIGNERS ACROSS RESIDENTIAL INTERIORS, ARCHITECTURE, AND LANDSCAPE.

THIS YEAR, WE INTRODUCE FIVE STANDOUT STUDIOS CHANGING THE GAME GLOBALLY.

AND WE ALSO SALUTE A SPECIAL GROUP OF THE INDUSTRY'S TITANS, WHOSE WORK IS, IN A WORD, LEGENDARY.

Portraits by Katie McCurdy

AUGUSTA HOFFMAN

New York City-based designer Augusta Hoffman launched her career as a solo act in 2019. In the ensuing five years, her romantic, elegant, and timeless look has been on full display in projects including an apartment on the Upper West Side, her own NoHo apartment (featured in May 2023 ELLE DECOR), and a Manhattan atelier for wedding dress designer Danielle Frankel. Augusta Hoffman Studio's understated and refined interiors continue to remind us that grace is in the details.

JEREMIAH BRENT

The newly minted Queer Eye star Jeremiah Brent is no stranger to the limelight. Since launching Jeremiah Brent Design (JBD) in 2012, he's built a name for himself as an arbiter of California cool, crafting interiors that reflect an emotional sensitivity and curatorial ambition. He designed the restaurant Juliet, in Los Angeles, next to his cult lifestyle brand and retail space, Atrio, creating a certified JBD destination. A recent Brent project, a collaboration with his partner in life and work, Nate Berkus, is featured on page 106, and his book, The Space That Keeps You: When Home Becomes a Love Story, was released earlier this year.

ELIZABETH GRAZIOLA

YELLOW HOUSE ARCHITECTS

Elizabeth Graziola is a proponent of classicism, as evidenced in the projects undertaken by her architecture and interior design firm, Yellow House Architects. She struck out on her own in 2020, following nearly 18 years at Peter Pennoyer Architects. Graziola's portfolio spans a wide spectrum, encompassing residential and commercial projects in the United States and abroad. From ground-up construction to historical preservation, her work consistently exhibits a strong attention to detail. In an Upper East Side penthouse duplex designed in collaboration with Redd Kaihoi, featured in our Summer 2023 issue, Graziola seamlessly integrated interior architectural elements from past centuries, such as linen-fold paneling and fluted plaster walls.

JULIEN SEBBAN

Walking into one of the vivid, ebulliently colorful spaces designed by Julien Sebban's firm is to enter a fantastical play on history. With a name like Uchronia, that's to be expected. His stylish approach to interiors and furniture design was fully evident in a gemstone-inspired Paris apartment in a classic Haussmannian building that appeared on the cover of our May 2023 issue. In addition to residential projects, Sebban's bold, graphic signature style has translated perfectly to fabrics for Prella, as well as to retail and hospitality settings, including a handful of Sonia Rykiel boutiques and the Forest restaurant at Musée d'Art Moderne de Paris.

ADAM CHARLAP HYMAN

ANDRE HERRERO

Adam Charlap Hyman and Andre Herrero, founders of Charlap Hyman & Herrero, established their architecture and interior design firm in 2014, just three years after they both graduated from the Rhode Island School of Design. Since then, they have embarked on a diverse range of projects, spanning set design for operas to an art-filled Miami Beach high-rise apartment (featured on the cover of our October 2023 issue), alongside ventures into art curation and retail design. They tackle their work with precision and imbue every inch of it with a playful spirit, equal parts erudite and fun.
